3,500,000 ENGAGED; RUSS LOSE 500,000

Mighty Struggle Sways Back and Forth Over 115 Mile Front in Carpathians—Russ Held in Check—Austria May Attack Italy—Grand Duke Nicholas, Head of Russian Armies, Said to Have Been Mortally Wounded by One of His Generals—Bomb Dropping Continues.

By Associated Press.

London, April 17.—The Greatest battle of the war, at least so far as concerns the number of men engaged, is being fought in the Carpathians, along the 115 miles front from Bartfeld, in northern Hungary, to Stry, in eastern Galicia, judging from reports.

This line roughly parallels the boundary between Hungary and Galicia, running through a difficult mountain region, through which the Russians hope to break a way into the heart of Hungary.

German war correspondents style this battle the greatest in the history of the world, and it is estimated that 3,500,000 men are taking part.

According to the German reports, the Russian advance, which a week ago seemed to be threatening the integrity of Hungary, has now been checked definitely. It is said that the Russian losses in killed, wounded, sick and prisoners are 500,000.

Russian reports throw little light on the situation. It appears probable, however, that the Russians have sustained at least a temporary check.

A Paris dispatch from Rome says the belief is general in the Italian capital, that Austria will attack Italy should the country's determination to enter the war become evident. It is added that this possibility is viewed complacently, on account of the strong concentration of Italian troops near the border.

London, April 17.—Both the allies and Germany are today taking inventories of the injuries inflicted by the recent aerial operations.

The attackers claim the destruction of a military transport and equipment, while the defenders report several casualties to civilians, and only slight damage to property.

The people of England are today looking for a repetition of an aerial attack from German Zeppelins, or Taubes. Up to noon no such fresh occurrences had been reported.

With the news of the resumption of activity by the allied fleet off the Dardanelles, comes a report that the Grecian press is giving the impression of a possible modification of the present policy of Greece.

London, April 17.—A report is published by a Prussian newspaper that Grand Duke Nicholas, Russian commander-in-chief, has been shot in the abdomen by General Baron Sievers, commander of the Russian Tenth Army, which was defeated and driven from East Prussia last February. The general is said to have committed suicide.

There is no confirmation of this report, officially or otherwise, from any other source.

The official German statement today, evidently referring to yesterday's raid over England by a German aeroplane, says shells were dropped on Greenwich, in the metropolitan district of London, only five miles from London bridge. English reports yesterday said the aeroplane approached no nearer than 30 miles from the city.

Unofficial advices from Berlin say that considerable damage was done by the Zeppelins which raided England twice this week, and that officers and men on British patrol boats were killed or wounded.

The French ministry of marine announced further naval operations against the Turkish forces which proceeded against Egypt. It is said a French battleship shelled a Turkish position near the Egyptian city of El Arish, close to the border of Palestine.

SEVEN KILLED BY AIRMEN

Amiens, France, April 17.—Seven persons were killed and eight wounded, by bombs dropped by the German aeroplanes which flew over this city yesterday, one in the morning and one in the evening.

GOOD ROADS EXPERT TALKS ON REPAIR OF EARTH ROADS

USE AND ABUSE OF ROAD WORKING MACHINERY BY TOWNSHIP OFFICIALS AND HOW THOUSANDS OF MILES OF OHIO ROADS CAN BE MAINTAINED AT LOWEST POSSIBLE COST—SOMETHING INTERESTING TO FAYETTE CITIZENS.

How to obtain best results at lowest cost in maintaining 60,000 miles of Ohio earth roads, and the proper use of road working machinery placed in the hands of township officials, is the theme of an interesting communication from G. F. Rudisill, state director of The Ohio Good Roads Federation. His communication follows:

From fifty to sixty thousand miles of public highways in the state must necessarily be improved, maintained and repaired as ordinary earth roads and will be so managed for the next century or so. If it is the policy to improve ten or twelve thousand miles of public roads known as main market and inter-county highways, and if the counties themselves undertake the improvement of an additional ten or twelve thousand miles of county roads, there still will be between fifty and sixty thousand miles of ordinary roads that must be cared for by the townships. It is therefore quite apparent that careful consideration should be given to the study of the specific subject of earth roads.

The proper maintenance of earth roads is unquestionably of very great importance. It has been demonstrated that by the proper use of the road drag the minimum cost of maintenance may be attained on such roads that have been properly drained, shaped and crowned. By the systematic use of road drags earth roads have been maintained and kept in ideal condition at an average cost of less than $10 per mile per year. Accordingly, one hundred miles of such public thoroughfares, barring extraordinary conditions, can be kept in ideal condition for less than $1000 per year.

The act of draining such roads preserves the crowns, fills depressions, and prevents the road bed from becoming water soaked. Water is the natural enemy of any road, and eternal vigilance by systematic dragging is necessary to the end that an earth road may be put in a condition immediately following each rain so that it will carry the water quickly from its surface during the succeeding rain.

The introduction of road machines in the early 80's marked a considerable change in the methods, and the advantages to be gained by the use of these machines were quickly recognized and for a time general improvement was very marked, but the misuse of road machines very quickly followed in the succeeding years, as there has been a tendency to use road machines in such manner, at such times and in such places as to produce results which have been extremely unsatisfactory. By the abuse of road machines a very large percentage of money and labor has been wasted and the roads were left in worse condition than they would have been had they not been touched at all.

There is no implement which, if properly used, results in a greater saving of labor than the road machine and likewise there is no implement by means of which money may be wasted any faster and bad conditions more quickly produced than by its misuse.

Road authorities should so plan and execute the work that the job for the road machine is ended for quite a long period, and especially so if the road is dragged as provided by law. A road drag should not be permitted to be used on a dry surface.

There is no road so good as an earth road, when the earth road is good.

B. & O. TO ADOPT CIVIL SERVICE

If plans under consideration by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad be adopted, the future employment of men for positions with that company will be upon a basis as to physical fitness similar to that required to enter the United States government service. Officials working upon the proposed regulations governing employment favor a plan of requiring those who in the future apply for positions in any branch of the service to undergo a medical examination to ascertain whether or not they are in good health.

Covering all grades of employment this plan is upon broader lines than those applying to railroad and other corporation service generally. The Baltimore & Ohio like other transportation companies and employers of large working forces requires its employees in certain occupations to undergo physical examinations. For instance, engineers and other trainmen are examined as to physical condition and sight, and the dining car and restaurant employees and all others handling food served the public are required to be in perfect health; but the new regulations are aimed to provide protection also to employees engaged in other work. Clerical forces and others engaged in sedentary employment will be assured under the new plan that those associated with them are physically sound, and in large offices this is regarded as of great importance as a safeguard to health. And by taking this precaution at the time employment is entered upon not only will it improve the general health of the force but it will automatically raise the standard of efficiency. Incident to the examining of prospective employees members of the Medical Board will observe the general health of the force.

CALLS TEDDY A BARBARIAN

Chicago, April 17.—"Barbarian" was a term used by Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch when she read ex-President Roosevelt's letter to Mrs. George R. R. of Washington, in which members of the Women's Peace society and others striving to stop the European war were likened to "civil war copperheads." Mrs. McCulloch, who is one of the most prominent suffragists of the middle west, said: "The colonel's attitude is typical of him. He does not believe that the day of the big stick is past and that people are now seeking to solve problems by the application of intellect and not brute force. Col. Roosevelt's letter is the cry of a barbarian out of his element. The women who have gone to Europe to spread the plea for peace are doing a greater deed than the colonel ever accomplished—they are marking an epochal advance of civilization."

ALGER BILL TAKES SHOT AT HOLD OVERS

Columbus, April 17.—Report was made to the house calendar by the constitutional amendment committee of the Agler resolution to submit to the people a proposal to insert in the constitution a requirement that no state official shall be appointed for a longer term than the term of the appointing officer. The resolution is in accordance with Governor Willis' contention that heads of departments, commissions and boards should be in sympathy with the policies of the administration and responsive to the governor, and not hold over during the incumbency of two or three governors. The Agler resolution also is in line with the Willis policy of smaller salaries. It limits to $4,200 the salary of appointive chiefs and members of commissions and boards, and to $3,000 the pay of subordinates.

Intimately connected with the Agler resolution is the resolution of Brown of Union, also reported to the calendar, proposing by constitutional amendment to increase to four years the terms of the five elective state officers, governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, auditor, treasurer and secretary of state. In case of the adoption of both amendments the terms of appointive officers as well as elective officers would be limited to four years.

Report was made on the remainder of the series of constitutional proposals which have lain in committee since January. The Hoy resolution for twelve-year terms for judges of the supreme court, eight-year terms for appellate and common pleas judges, six-year terms for probate judges and four-year terms for all other judges; the Sprague resolution for a forty-five day session of the legislature in odd-numbered years, to receive bills, and an unlimited session in even-numbered years, to pass bills; the Totman resolution for four-year terms for county officers.

FUNERAL OF AGED SENATOR

New York, April 17.—Ex-United States Senator Nelson W. Aldrich of Rhode Island, who died suddenly at his home in Fifth avenue, was in his seventy-fourth year. His death was caused by apoplexy, following an attack of acute indigestion. Mr. Aldrich had been in good health up to Thursday, when he was seized with the attack of indigestion. He is survived by his wife, son Winthrop and daughter, Miss Lucy. The funeral will take place at Providence, R. I., tomorrow afternoon, at the Beneficent Church. Bishop Perry has been asked to conduct the services. Interment will be in the family plot at Swan Point cemetery, Providence.

GOOD ROADS EXPERT TALKS ON REPAIR OF EARTH ROADS

USE AND ABUSE OF ROAD WORKING MACHINERY BY TOWNSHIP OFFICIALS AND HOW THOUSANDS OF MILES OF OHIO ROADS CAN BE MAINTAINED AT LOWEST POSSIBLE COST—SOMETHING INTERESTING TO FAYETTE CITIZENS.

How to obtain best results at lowest cost in maintaining 60,000 miles of Ohio earth roads, and the proper use of road working machinery placed in the hands of township officials, is the theme of an interesting communication from G. F. Rudisill, state director of The Ohio Good Roads Federation. His communication follows:

From fifty to sixty thousand miles of public highways in the state must necessarily be improved, maintained and repaired as ordinary earth roads and will be so managed for the next century or so. If it is the policy to improve ten or twelve thousand miles of public roads known as main market and inter-county highways, and if the counties themselves undertake the improvement of an additional ten or twelve thousand miles of county roads, there still will be between fifty and sixty thousand miles of ordinary roads that must be cared for by the townships. It is therefore quite apparent that careful consideration should be given to the study of the specific subject of earth roads.

The proper maintenance of earth roads is unquestionably of very great importance. It has been demonstrated that by the proper use of the road drag the minimum cost of maintenance may be attained on such roads that have been properly drained, shaped and crowned. By the systematic use of road drags earth roads have been maintained and kept in ideal condition at an average cost of less than $10 per mile per year. Accordingly, one hundred miles of such public thoroughfares, barring extraordinary conditions, can be kept in ideal condition for less than $1000 per year.

The act of draining such roads preserves the crowns, fills depressions, and prevents the road bed from becoming water soaked. Water is the natural enemy of any road, and eternal vigilance by systematic dragging is necessary to the end that an earth road may be put in a condition immediately following each rain so that it will carry the water quickly from its surface during the succeeding rain.

The introduction of road machines in the early 80's marked a considerable change in the methods, and the advantages to be gained by the use of these machines were quickly recognized and for a time general improvement was very marked, but the misuse of road machines very quickly followed in the succeeding years, as there has been a tendency to use road machines in such manner, at such times and in such places as to produce results which have been extremely unsatisfactory. By the abuse of road machines a very large percentage of money and labor has been wasted and the roads were left in worse condition than they would have been had they not been touched at all.

There is no implement which, if properly used, results in a greater saving of labor than the road machine and likewise there is no implement by means of which money may be wasted any faster and had conditions more quickly produced than by its misuse.

Road authorities should so plan and execute the work that the job for the road machine is ended for quite a long period, and especially so if the road is dragged as provided by law. A road drag should not be permitted to be used on a dry surface.

There is no road so good as an earth road, when the earth road is good.

B. & O. TO ADOPT CIVIL SERVICE

If plans under consideration by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad be adopted, the future employment of men for positions with that company will be upon a basis as to physical fitness similar to that required to enter the United States government service. Officials working upon the proposed regulations governing employment favor a plan of requiring those who in the future apply for positions in any branch of the service to undergo a medical examination to ascertain whether or not they are in good health.

Covering all grades of employment this plan is upon broader lines than those applying to railroad and other corporation service generally. The Baltimore & Ohio like other transportation companies and employers of large working forces requires its employees in certain occupations to undergo physical examinations. For instance, engineers and other trainmen are examined as to physical condition and sight, and the dining car and restaurant employees and all others handling food served the public are required to be in perfect health; but the new regulations are aimed to provide protection also to employees engaged in other work. Clerical forces and others engaged in sedentary employment will be assured under the new plan that those associated with them are physically sound, and in large offices this is regarded as of great importance as a safeguard to health. And by taking this precaution at the time employment is entered upon not only will it improve the general health of the force but it will automatically raise the standard of efficiency. Incident to the examining of prospective employees members of the Medical Board will observe the general health of the force.

OHIO BRIEFS

Tax Commissioners at Akron. Akron, O., April 17.—Commissioners Boyle and Packinpaugh of the state tax commission are in Akron today holding a hearing relative to the conditions of the real estate valuations in this city. There was much dissatisfaction with the readjustment of valuations in 1914 in Akron. The commissioners will endeavor to provide for such reappraisal as will give a more satisfactory adjustment here. According to reports, Akron lacks $486,000 of being able to meet its expenses this year.

Trip to Expo Deferred. Columbus, April 17.—Just after they had completed plans to take a trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition with $2,500 which they are alleged to have stolen at the Chittenden hotel, Joseph Read, twenty-five, and William Polk, twenty-seven, negro employees of the hotel, were arrested. The money was the property of George J. Arronson of Philadelphia, who told the police that he put it into a pillow slip and forgot to remove it in the morning.

Devaney Announces Deputies. Cincinnati, April 17.—United States Marshal Michael Devaney announced deputies here and in Columbus. Bert Walter and Clarence M. Wright will be the Columbus deputies. Those named by Devaney for Cincinnati are: J. P. Heibling, Jr., of Georgetown; Thomas C. Kane, Cincinnati, and John Haight, Wyoming.

Mother and Son Attacked. Cleveland, April 17.—Charles Ostrander, eight, and his mother, Mrs. Anna Ostrander, are in a serious condition, following an attack on the boy by a dog. His flesh was torn and his leg broken. The mother finally threw herself on the dog to save her son. She was severely bitten.

Brewery Will Be Sold. Canal Dover, O., April 17.—The plant of the Consumers' Brewing company will be offered at sheriff's sale May 1, foreclosure proceedings having been brought by Pittsburgh capitalists.

CALLS TEDDY A BARBARIAN

Chicago, April 17.—"Barbarian" was a term used by Mrs. Catherine Waugh McCulloch when she read ex-President Roosevelt's letter to Mrs. George R. Blue of Washington, in which members of the Women's Peace society and others striving to stop the European war were likened to "civil war copperheads." Mrs. McCulloch, who is one of the most prominent suffragists of the middle west, said:

"The colonel's attitude is typical of him. He does not believe that the day of the big stick is past and that people are now seeking to solve problems by the application of intellect and not brute force. Col. Roosevelt's letter is the cry of a barbarian out of his element. The women who have gone to Europe to spread the plea for peace are doing a greater deed than the colonel ever accomplished—they are marking an epochal advance of civilization."

ALGER BILL TAKES SHOT AT HOLD OVERS

Columbus, April 17.—Report was made to the house calendar by the constitutional amendment committee of the Agler resolution to submit to the people a proposal to insert in the constitution a requirement that no state official shall be appointed for a longer term than the term of the appointing officer. The resolution is in accordance with Governor Willis' contention that heads of departments, commissions and boards should be in sympathy with the policies of the administration and responsive to the governor, and not hold over during the incumbency of two or three governors. The Agler resolution also is in line with the Willis policy of smaller salaries. It limits to $4,200 the salary of appointive chiefs and members of commissions and boards, and to $3,000 the pay of subordinates.

Intimately connected with the Agler resolution is the resolution of Brown of Union, also reported to the calendar, proposing by constitutional amendment to increase to four years the terms of the five elective state officers, governor, lieutenant governor, attorney general, auditor, treasurer and secretary of state. In case of the adoption of both amendments the terms of appointive officers as well as elective officers would be limited to four years.

Report was made on the remainder of the series of constitutional proposals which have lain in committee since January, the Hoy resolution for twelve-year terms for judges of the supreme court, eight-year terms for appellate and common pleas judges, six-year terms for probate judges and four-year terms for all other judges; the Sprague resolution for a forty-five day session of the legislature in odd-numbered years, to receive bills, and an unlimited session in even-numbered years, to pass bills; the Totman resolution for four-year terms for county officers.

Effort to put the jitney bus out of business was discerned by members in a series of bills offered by Morris of Van Wert. They provide that a jitney can not do business unless its owner gets a franchise from the municipal council, pays an excise tax to the state and is regulated by the state utilities commission.

To meet the condition which has prevailed for years, that saloons outside of municipalities are unregulated except by state law, Representative Garver introduced a bill giving township trustees regulatory powers, but no power to suspend Sunday closing and local option laws.

The position of director of the legislative reference bureau practically is abolished by a bill introduced by Senator Mallow of Ross. It provides that in case the state library board does not appoint a director of the bu-

Clean Up the City

Mayor Coffey has issued his proclamation, calling upon all citizens of Washington to tidy up their premises.

The request is necessarily formal, to a certain extent, but it should not lack persuasive power for that reason. These "clean-up" proclamations by the city officials have grown to be regular productions of the spring season. Not many years ago, the first cleanup proclamation was regarded as a decided innovation—and it was an innovation.

Now the issuance of such a proclamation has become a part of the regular routine labors of the chief executive of the various municipalities in the state.

The appearance of the city—whether it is pleasing to the sight of the stranger and the home folks or not—is being regarded with vastly more concern than it once was. Strangers think more of a tidy city—a clean city—than they do of a ramscackle, disordered, unclean city. Folks at home take more pride in their city and more interest in their business if the city is a nice place in which to live.

The result of collective efforts to clean up and to beautify are wonderful, but every house owner should realize that collective efforts can only come by each individual doing promptly the work which he has to do on his own premises.

The effect of these clean-up campaigns on the health and morals of a city has been demonstrated to be real and substantial.

Mayor Coffey's proclamation this year should meet with more prompt and more strict observance than ever before because the city is already beginning to show the effect and reap the benefits of the campaigns that have preceded the present one and we do not want to go back. We want to hold all the advantage gained and to make more progress.

Every citizen should tidy up his own premises and the miracle will be worked—a clean, healthful city will result.

This is a movement that everyone can join. There is nothing but common sense and self preservation back of it.

The Chicago Strike

Chicago is again to the forefront in the news of the day with a general strike among the laborers of that city which promises an industrial depression and disorders of tremendous consequences.

Because the contractors of Chicago would not consent to raise the wages of the union carpenters employed from sixty-five to seventy cents per hour all union carpenters in Chicago quit work. An effort to effect a compromise was made but the council of the union refused an offer of the contractors to pay sixty-seven and one half cents an hour.

Following the failure of the efforts to compromise about twelve thousand carpenters laid down their tools and refused to work on Friday and before twenty-four hours had elapsed the strike had grown to such proportions that in the city of Chicago alone there were one hundred and twenty-five thousand idle men who had only a short time before been employed at steady work and earning good wages.

Following the strike of the carpenters other union laborers refused to work and contractors other than builders refused to employ union labor—all through sympathy with one or the other side to the main controversy.

As a result of the strikes and lockouts work on more than four thousand buildings in Chicago is halted.

More than a hundred thousand men who could earn good wages refuse to do so. That means that right now more than double that many families in Chicago will suffer for the necessities of life.

The disorders—clashes with men who are willing to work and come to Chicago to work, clashes with the police and perhaps the soldiery—is bound to follow unless the differences are soon adjusted.

That there should be some way devised for bringing about a change in industrial conditions is again strongly evidenced.

Union laborers in Chicago refuse to work and are picketing the city and doing everything else possible to prevent others from working.

In the meantime there are thousands and thousands of carpenters and mechanics and laborers who want work and would gladly go to Chicago where work in plenty is obtainable, but they dare not do so.

Unless an agreement of settlement is reached soon it is possible that Chicago will enter upon an era of industrial disturbances which will be appalling.

Chicago suffers because there is too much work to do and no one to do it. Other sections suffer because there is no work to do and a large number of idle men and yet the two sections are powerless to rearrange conditions.

Poetry For Today

THE WORLD-CHILD

At times I am the mother of the world,
and mine seems all its sorrow, and its fears,
That rose, which in each mother's heart is curled—
That rose of pity—opens with my tears,
And, waking in the night, I lie and hark
To the one lone sobbing, and the wild alarms,
Of my World-child, a-wailing in the dark;
The child I fain would shelter in my arms.
I call to it (as from another room)
A mother calls, what time she cannot go:
"Sleep well, dear world; Love hides behind this gloom.
There is no need for wakefulness or woe,
The long, long night is almost past and gone,
The day is near." And yet the world weeps on.
Again I follow it throughout the day,
With anxious eyes I see it trip and fall,
And hurt itself in many a foolish way
Childlike, unheeding warning word or call.
I see it grasp, and, grasping, break the toys
It cried to own; then toss them on the floor,
And, breathless, hurry after fancied joys
That cease to please when added to its store.
I see the lacerations on its hands
Made by forbidden tools; but when it weeps
I also weep, as one who understands;
And having been a child, the memory keeps.
Ah, my poor world, however wrong thy part,
Still there is pity in my mother-heart.
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

One reason why mother never has the correct time in the house is because father never thinks of winding the clock until after he has put out the lights and crawled in bed.

The trouble with standing in the hall with your hand on the doorknob and waiting for opportunity to knock is that the fellows who knock are either book agents, collectors or insurance solicitors.

What is your idea of a model husband? Mine is that he should know enough to put soap powder in the water before he washes the dishes.

The meanest man on earth isn't the fellow who steals candy from a blind baby. He is the fellow who donates money to establish a training school for women orators.

Lots of men who have the courage of their convictions haven't enough courage to tell the truth to their wives. Right now the girls do not seem to care a hang what they are wearing on their heads as long as they are wearing shoes with cloth tops on their feet.

Father likes to have mother start in and get dressed to go out because there is a period of about ten minutes occupied in fixing her hair when she has her mouth so full of hairpins that she can't talk.

The man who won't take a dare has never monkeyed with a buzzsaw.

When the children are attending grammar school they ask so many questions that father buys an encyclopedia and tries to answer them. And a few years later when the children are in high school they come home and prove to father that he and the encyclopedia are both wrong.

LOSSES OF THE VILLA ARMY TOTAL 14,000

El Paso, Tex., April 17.—That General Francisco Villa has been disastrously defeated and is retreating northward with the remnants of his army, after losing 14,000 men and 30 cannon in a two days' battle at Celaya with 20,000 Carranzistas under General Alvaro Obregon, was the substance of advices received by Andres Garcia, local consul for the Carranza faction.

The fighting was the most severe of the present revolution in Mexico. This is indicated by the admission of General Obregon that he lost 2,000 men.

General Obregon's message said the battle opened on the 13th and ended in the complete rout of the Villistas.

A private message from General Francisco Villa was received here admitting that in the fighting around Celaya, in which he had attempted to break through the forces of General Alvaro Obregon, he "had been forced to retire for lack of ammunition." He claimed that he had retired but a few miles and would soon be able to resume the fight. He asserted that he had the enemy surrounded when his ammunition ran out and that the enemy at once took advantage of this to regain lost ground and make a determined attack.

After describing the battle at Celaya in detail, General Obregon concludes his report as follows:

"When our gallant soldiers reached the trenches of the enemy they found thirty cannon in good condition, with ammunition; 5,000 mausers and about 8,000 prisoners, a large number of horses, saddles and equipment. Our fresh cavalry is pursuing the remainder of the enemy. Up to this moment the losses of the enemy is estimated at 14,000 dead, wounded and deserted. Ours amount to 2,000 dead and wounded. Among them is a colonel and one of my staff officers."

"Before the end of the year the capacity of the Burton-Townsend Brick company of Zanesville will have been doubled by the addition of new equipment to cost $500,000. This is interesting news to Columbus stockholders, who yesterday received their quarterly 1½ per cent dividend on the preferred stock. The output of the present plant, combined with the new equipment, has been sold out for several months to come. With natural resources that are said to be unequalled, together with a coal mining property south of Zanesville that furnishes more coal than necessary for the operation of the plants, officials are pleased at the prospects. The earnings for the last quarter, according to reports, have been the largest in the history of the company."

Clean Up the City

Mayor Coffey has issued his proclamation, calling upon all citizens of Washington to tidy up their premises.

The request is necessarily formal, to a certain extent, but it should not lack persuasive power for that reason. These "clean-up" proclamations by the city officials have grown to be regular productions of the spring season. Not many years ago, the first cleanup proclamation was regarded as a decided innovation—and it was an innovation.

Now the issuance of such a proclamation has become a part of the regular routine labors of the chief executive of the various municipalities in the state.

The appearance of the city—whether it is pleasing to the sight of the stranger and the home folks or not—is being regarded with vastly more concern than it once was. Strangers think more of a tidy city—a clean city—than they do of a ramshackle, disordered, unclean city. Folks at home take more pride in their city and more interest in their business if the city is a nice place in which to live.

The result of collective efforts to clean up and to beautify are wonderful, but every house owner should realize that collective efforts can only come by each individual doing promptly the work which he has to do on his own premises.

The effect of these clean-up campaigns on the health and morals of a city has been demonstrated to be real and substantial.

Mayor Coffey's proclamation this year should meet with more prompt and more strict observance than ever before because the city is already beginning to show the effect and reap the benefits of the campaigns that have preceded the present one and we do not want to go back. We want to hold all the advantage gained and to make more progress.

Every citizen should tidy up his own premises and the miracle will be worked—a clean, healthful city will result.

This is a movement that everyone can join. There is nothing but common sense and self preservation back of it.

The Chicago Strike

Chicago is again to the forefront in the news of the day with a general strike among the laborers of that city which promises an industrial depression and disorders of tremendous consequences.

Because the contractors of Chicago would not consent to raise the wages of the union carpenters employed from sixty-five to seventy cents per hour all union carpenters in Chicago quit work. An effort to effect a compromise was made but the council of the union refused an offer of the contractors to pay sixty-seven and one half cents an hour.

Following the failure of the efforts to compromise about twelve thousand carpenters laid down their tools and refused to work on Friday and before twenty-four hours had elapsed the strike had grown to such proportions that in the city of Chicago alone there were one hundred and twenty-five thousand idle men who had only a short time before been employed at steady work and earning good wages.

Following the strike of the carpenters other union laborers refused to work and contractors other than builders refused to employ union labor—all through sympathy with one or the other side to the main controversy.

As a result of the strikes and lockouts work on more than four thousand buildings in Chicago is halted.

More than a hundred thousand men who could earn good wages refuse to do so. That means that right now more than double that many families in Chicago will suffer for the necessities of life.

The disorders—clashes with men who are willing to work and come to Chicago to work, clashes with the police and perhaps the soldiery—is bound to follow unless the differences are soon adjusted.

That there should be some way devised for bringing about a change in industrial conditions is again strongly evidenced.

Union laborers in Chicago refuse to work and are picketing the city and doing everything else possible to prevent others from working.

In the meantime there are thousands and thousands of carpenters and mechanics and laborers who want work and would gladly go to Chicago where work in plenty is obtainable, but they dare not do so.

Unless an agreement of settlement is reached soon it is possible that Chicago will enter upon an era of industrial disturbances which will be appalling.

Chicago suffers because there is too much work to do and no one to do it. Other sections suffer because there is no work to do and a large number of idle men and yet the two sections are powerless to rearrange conditions.

Poetry For Today

THE WORLD-CHILD

At times I am the mother of the world,
and mine seems all its sorrow, and
its fears,
That rose, which in each mother's heart is curled—
That rose of pity—opens with my tears,
And, waking in the night, I lie and hark
To the one lone sobbing, and the wild alarms,
Of my World-child, a-wailing in the dark;
The child I fain would shelter in my arms.
I call to it (as from another room
A mother calls, what time she cannot go):
"Sleep well, dear world; Love hides behind this gloom.
There is no need for wakefulness
or woe,
The long, long night is almost past and gone,
The day is near." And yet the world weeps on.

Again I follow it throughout the day,
With anxious eyes I see it trip and fall,
And hurt itself in many a foolish way
Childlike, unheeding warning word or call.
I see it grasp, and, grasping, break
the toys
It cried to own; then toss them on the floor,
And, breathless, hurry after fancied joys
That cease to please when added
to its store.
I see the lacerations on its hands
Made by forbidden pools; but when it weeps
I also weep, as one who understands;
And having been a child, the memory keeps.
Ah, my poor world, however wrong
thy part,
Still there is pity in my mother-heart.
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Sure!

"It says here that the sense of touch is the most delicate of the senses," remarked the old fogey. "Do you believe that?"
"Sure I do," replied the grouch.
"When you sit down on a tack you can't smell it, you can't taste it, but Willie—Paw, will you answer me a question?

Paw—Yes, my son. What is it?
Willie—Could you describe a double wedding as a four-in-hand tie?
Paw—You go to bed, young man.
You are getting too gay.

She's constantly nagging,
A cop might arrest it and stop her!"

Luke McLuke Says

One reason why mother never has the correct time in the house is because father never thinks of winding the clock until after he has put out the lights and crawled in bed.

The trouble with standing in the hall with your hand on the doorknob and waiting for opportunity to knock is that the fellows who knock are either book agents, collectors or insurance solicitors.

What is your idea of a model husband? Mine is that he should know enough to put soap powder in the water before he washes the dishes.

The meanest man on earth isn't the fellow who steals candy from a blind baby. He is the fellow who donates money to establish a training school for women orators.

Lots of men who have the courage of their convictions haven't enough courage to tell the truth to their wives.

Right now the girls do not seem to care a hang what they are wearing on their heads as long as they are wearing shoes with cloth tops on their feet.

Father likes to have mother start in and get dressed to go out because there is a period of about ten minutes occupied in fixing her hair when she has her mouth so full of hairpins that she can't talk.

The man who won't take a dare has never monkeyed with a buzzsaw.

When the children are attending grammar school they ask so many questions that father buys an encyclopedia and tries to answer them. And a few years later when the children are in high school they come home and prove to father that he and the encyclopedia are both wrong.

The supreme court has decided that a municipality has the right to fix the weight of a loaf of bread. Well, the scale of weights for the loaf baked by a bride for her hubby should range from ten to twenty pounds.

The lad who lies about his worldly possessions in order to dodge paying 17 cents taxes every year is always est when the old flag is waved and patriotism is on tap.

LOSSES OF THE
VILLA ARMY
TOTAL 14,000

El Paso, Tex., April 17.—That General Francisco Villa has been disastrously defeated and is retreating northward with the remnants of his army, after losing 14,000 men and 30
cannon in a two days' battle at Celaya with 20,000 Carranzistas under General Alvaro Obregon, was the substance of advices received by Andres Garcia, local consul for the Carranza faction.

The fighting was the most severe
of the present revolution in Mexico.
This is indicated by the admission of General Obregon that he lost 2,000 men.

General Obregon's message said the battle opened on the 13th and ended in the complete rout of the Villistas.

A private message from General
Francisco Villa was received here admitting that in the fighting around Celaya, in which he had attempted to break through the forces of General Alvaro Obregon, he "had been forced to retire for lack of ammunition." He claimed that he had retired but a few miles and would soon be able to resume the fight. He asserted that he had the enemy surrounded when his ammunition ran out and that the enemy at once took advantage of this to regain lost ground and make a determined attack.

After describing the battle at Celaya in detail, General Obregon concludes his report as follows:

"When our gallant soldiers reached the trenches of the enemy they found thirty cannon in good condition, with ammunition; 5,000 mausers and about 8,000 prisoners, a large number of horses, saddles and equipment. Our fresh cavalry is pursuing the remainder of the enemy. Up to this moment the losses of the enemy is estimated at 14,000 dead, wounded and deserted. Ours amount to 2,000 dead and wounded. Among them is a colonel and one of my staff officers."

AN AUSTRIAN GIRL A SPY

Rome, April 17.—The police have arrested an Austrian girl, a pupil in the musical conservatory of Pesaro, and have sequestered compromising documents proving espionage and implicating numerous agents scattered throughout the principal cities of Italy. Two German spies have been caught at Genoa and placed under arrest, and important photographs in their possession have been sequestered. A Turkish spy had been arrested at Naples and other spies have been arrested in different parts of the country. Particulars of the arrests are being withheld, while clues are being followed in the expectation of arresting accomplices.

"Before the end of the year the capacity of the Burton-Townsend Brick company of Zanesville will have been doubled by the addition of new equipment to cost $500,000.
This is interesting news to Columbus stockholders, who yesterday received their quarterly 1½ per cent dividend on the preferred stock. The output of the present plant, combined with the new equipment, has been sold out for several months to come.
With natural resources that are said to be unequalled, together with a coal mining property south of Zanesville that furnishes more coal than necessary for the operation of the plants, officials are pleased at the prospects. The earnings for the last quarter, according to reports, have been the largest in the history of the company."

WATER SHUT OFF DUE TO MISHAP

For nearly one hour Friday afternoon the water company shut off all water while a corporation cock, torn from one of the big mains by the steam plow which is tearing up North street, near the old corporation line, was replaced.

The sharp nosed plow had caught the cock in such a manner that it was torn clear of the mains, and an instant later an inch stream of water was flying fifty feet in the air forced by the enormous pressure of the big main.

The water was shut off so that workmen could make repairs, and within a short time the leak had been stopped and once more the water was turned into the mains.

BROUGHT BACK TO FACE CHARGE

Sheriff Jones returned from Van Wert Saturday morning, bringing with him Varo Sanderson, of near Milledgeville, who has been a fugitive since last December.

The young man was arrested in Paulding county, near the town of Emmett, being located by Sheriff B. F. Zeuber, of Paulding county, who had been notified that the man might appear at the home of a relative in that county. The arrest was made at the home of Cleve Rhodes, and it was necessary to search the residence to locate the fugitive, who had secreted himself about the premises.

When notified that Sanderson was under arrest, Sheriff Jones left Friday morning, returning by way of Dayton and reaching this city Saturday morning, placing his prisoner in jail to await arraignment before Justice T. N. Craig.

The affidavit for the man's arrest was filed before Justice Craig December 2nd, 1914, and Clara Mongold is the girl making the charge. Sanderson became aware of the warrant issued for his arrest and fled. Since that time a constant watch has been maintained in an effort to apprehend him.

HIGH SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

On Monday the Senior class heard the report of the committee on a class play. The committee gave a favorable report in regard to play, coach and especially the costumes. They secured Mrs. Miller, formerly connected with the Purdue University as Coach. Mrs. Miller, on account of the shortness of time, advised two brief plays, instead of one long one.

The committee selected the "Box of Monkeys" and "In The Sleeping Car." The class voted, 26 to 17, to have a play. The players will be selected and the work started next week.

The Junior class has decided to have an entertainment in the High school auditorium soon, to finance the annual Junior-Senior banquet. It is not yet known what it will be, but it is thought there will be some surprises.

The track team yesterday decided to attend the annual track meet at Wilmington College to be held May 7th. The team is now practicing at the fair grounds and doing some strenuous work.

Coach Schlabach is busy showing the candidates for next fall's football team how to handle the pigskin. He is being assisted by Mr. Patton, of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Patton was coach of the champion Springfield H. S. team in 1912.

The Faculty is sorry to announce that the Board of Education has declined to accept the challenge to a basketball game. The student body is much disappointed.

DEATHS

Ethel Weaver, aged 24, daughter of Leslie Weaver, died at her home in Bloomingburg, Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Baptist church in Bloomingburg. Burial in Bloomingburg cemetery.

96TH BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED

Mr. Wallace Creamer, one of the oldest citizens of the county, celebrated his 96th birthday anniversary at the home of County Commissioner and Mrs. Louis Perrill, near Parretts station.

Mr. Creamer observed the event very quietly, and expects to celebrate quite a number more birthday anniversaries.

For one of such great age Mr. Creamer is unusually active, and he passed through his 96th winter very nicely.

XENIA TO CALL FOR BEAL LAW ELECTION

Xenia, which recently became wet under the constitutional amendment adopted last fall, is preparing to hold a Beal Law election to oust the saloons from that city.

The first petitions were placed in circulation early Saturday morning, and will be presented to council for action in the near future.

PRIMARY ELECTION TUESDAY, AUG. 10

The primary election, for picking candidates for the various municipal offices in towns of over 2,000 population, will be held Tuesday, August 10th, and nomination petitions must be on file 60 days previous to that time.

A great many persons have made inquiry regarding the time of holding the next primary election in this city, many laboring under the belief that the primary would be held sometime this spring.

It will be seen that prospective candidates for the various offices have ample time for entering the ring.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN BEGUN

Washington, D. C., April 17.—The nation wide campaign for the Susan B. Anthony Amendment to the Constitution, to remove the qualification of sex from the ballot, by the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage is going forward with determination. Already a dozen conventions have been arranged, and expert organizers are in the field rounding up the suffragists in every Congressional District in the United States.

This promises to be the busiest and most successful year of the Congressional Union. Miss Alice Paul, and her associates of the Executive Committee of the Union, are going to the states to arouse the women while Congress is not in session. ## Flies Spread Disease

THERE is plenty of proof that typhoid is due directly to the fly.

The fly carries the contagion not alone from the victim directly, but also from the apparently healthy person who may be what is technically known as a "carrier" to the next victim in the block above.

HIDDEN WEALTH.

Why It is Always Wise to Analyze the Earth When Digging.

Material thrown up by burrowing animals or exposed in digging or plowing, and, of course, railway cuttings or any excavations, should be carefully examined for the presence or indication of useful minerals. Fallen stones, especially carried down by rivets, should be carefully inspected, and if any stones of a promising character such as vein rock, which are known as shode stones, be found, the inspection should be continued up the river or the valley. The main may be many miles or only a few feet away from where the stones that belong to the vein now are.

A vein rock usually is of a different degree of hardness to the surrounding rock. It is harder than the surrounding materials. In weathering the outcrop is marked by projecting masses of rocks or depressions, which may be followed by the eye for some distance marking a vein.

These outcrops should be examined to see if they contain any useful mineral or indications of them. If the outcrop presents a spongy looking mass, stained with dark and other hues of brown, it gives a favorable indication. This material is called gossan and is a favorable indication of rich minerals lying underneath.—Chicago Herald.

The Dumb Waiter.

The value of the old fashioned labor saving device, the dumb waiter, cannot be exaggerated. Instead of carrying up the man, many things that daily have to come from the cellar they are placed on the dumb waiter. No energy is wasted, and one trip will save three. It serves the place also of the more modern linen chute. The linen chute is not to be taboored, for it has its uses, but it is practically wasting space to have both it and the dumb waiter. In many houses the dumb waiter stops short at the second floor—the reason why has never been discovered—sometimes it starts at the first floor instead of in the cellar, another enigma. This is as impractical as it would be to have the sidewalk end before it reaches the house. It simply doesn't answer the purpose for which it was intended.—Woman's Home Companion

Grip of the Bulldog.

It is a commonly accepted belief that nothing short of being pried loose will induce a bulldog to give up his grip on another dog or on an intruder, but this is a mistake. A little household ammonia poured on him as near his nose as circumstances will allow will make him let go immediately. The fumes of ammonia are so overpowering that a dog cannot possibly maintain his grip and his breath at the same time.

HIGH SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

On Monday the Senior class heard the report of the committee on a class play. The committee gave a favorable report in regard to play, coach and especially the costumes. They secured Mrs. Miller, formerly connected with the Purdue University as Coach. Mrs. Miller, on account of the shortness of time, advised two brief plays, instead of one long one.

The committee selected the "Box of Monkeys" and "In The Sleeping Car." The class voted, 26 to 17, to have a play. The players will be selected and the work started next week.

The Junior class has decided to have an entertainment in the High school auditorium soon, to finance the annual Junior-Senior banquet. It is not yet known what it will be, but it is thought there will be some surprises.

The track team yesterday decided to attend the annual track meet at Wilmington College to be held May 7th. The team is now practicing at the fair grounds and doing some strenuous work.

Coach Schlachach is busy showing the candidates for next fall's football team how to handle the pigskin. He is being assisted by Mr. Patton, of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Patton was coach of the champion Springfield H. S. team in 1912.

The Faculty is sorry to announce that the Board of Education has declined to accept the challenge to a basketball game. The student body is much disappointed.

DEATHS

WEAVER.

Ethel Weaver, aged 24, daughter of Leslie Weaver, died at her home in Bloomingburg, Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Baptist church in Bloomingburg. Burial in Bloomingburg cemetery.

96TH BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED

Mr. Wallace Creamer, one of the oldest citizens of the county, celebrated his 96th birthday anniversary at the home of County Commissioner and Mrs. Louis Perrill, near Parretts station.

Mr. Creamer observed the event very quietly, and expects to celebrate quite a number more birthday anniversaries.

For one of such great age Mr. Creamer is unusually active, and he passed through his 96th winter very nicely.

XENIA TO CALL FOR BEAL LAW ELECTION

Xenia, which recently became wet under the constitutional amendment adopted last fall, is preparing to hold a Beal Law election to oust the saloons from that city.

The first petitions were placed in circulation early Saturday morning, and will be presented to council for action in the near future.

PRIMARY ELECTION TUESDAY, AUG. 10

The primary election, for picking candidates for the various municipal offices in towns of over 2,000 population, will be held Tuesday, August 10th, and nomination petitions must be on file 60 days previous to that time.

A great many persons have made inquiry regarding the time of holding the next primary election in this city, many laboring under the belief that the primary would be held sometime this spring.

It will be seen that prospective candidates for the various offices have ample time for entering the ring.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN BEGUN

Washington, D. C., April 17.—The nation wide campaign for the Susan B. Anthony Amendment to the Constitution, to remove the qualification of sex from the ballot, by the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage is going forward with determination. Already a dozen conventions have been arranged, and expert organizers are in the field rounding up the suffragists in every Congressional District in the United States.

This promises to be the busiest and most successful year of the Congressional Union. Miss Alice Paul, and her associates of the Executive Committee of the Union, are going to the states to arouse the women while Congress is not in session. Next December they will be ready to make a formidable stand for their amendment. The back fire campaign is on in earnest.

Immediately following the decision of the Advisory Council at the New York meeting to hold conventions in every state in the Union to plan methods of organizing in each state, the existing sentiment in favor of the Susan B. ## In Social Circles

Mrs. Robert Howat will entertain the Monday Bridge club next Monday afternoon.

The monthly meeting of Grace Sunday school board proved an occasion of both much interest and pleasure at Grace church Friday night.

Thirty members were seated at half past six o'clock for a particularly tempting supper, a yellow and white color scheme prettily employed with a cluster of jonquils in central table decoration.

Mrs. R. C. Peddicord and Mrs. Scott Hopkins had the supper management in charge.

The evening was profitably spent in the interchange of ideas and plans for Sunday school work. Valuable suggestions were made for the improvement of the school and there is no possible doubt that these board meetings will undoubtedly prove of immense benefit.

Miss Carrie Willis is entertaining this evening, in compliment to her cousin, Mr. Russel Steele, of Chillicothe.

Mrs. P. J. Henness, recently elected president of the Browning Club, is entertaining the Browning club officers this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Hamilton are entertaining over Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton, of Columbus, Mr. Morris Hamilton and daughter, Jane, of Leavenworth Kansas.

Washington friends will be interested to learn of the birth of a second son to Mr. and Mrs. James Patton (nee Marguerite Courtwright of Circleville) at their home in Orange, N. J.

Miss Gertrude Ware came up from Frankfort Friday evening to be the guest of Mrs. Clay Johnson, of Dayton, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McCoy.

Mrs. Margaret Davenport went to Circleville Saturday morning for a few days' visit with friends.

Mrs. H. H. Elliott is visiting in Wilmington.

Albert Briggs and Russel Mobley were visitors in Columbus Saturday.

Mrs. Will E. Dale and Mrs. George Gregg joined Mrs. Stanley Schneider at the home of Mr. Schneider's parents in Cincinnati Saturday to remain until Sunday evening, when they will accompany Mrs. Schneider and baby home from a week's visit.

Mrs. T. M. Saxton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harold Inskeep on the Bogus Road.

Miss Dora Schmokey returned to her home in Chillicothe Friday, after a visit with Mrs. W. D. Chaney.

Mrs. Anna Ward and Mrs. Andrews, of Derby, are shopping visitors here today.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Paulin and Miss Paulin, of Sedalia spent Saturday in this city shopping.

Miss Helen Palmer will spend Sunday the guest of friends in Columbus.

Mr. Orris McGinnis is spending Sunday in Columbus the guest of Mr. Fred Hall.

Mrs. R. R. Kibler and daughter Maxine spent yesterday in Cincinnati. Today Maxine accompanied her little cousin Virginia Glenn, to Columbus to be the guests of their aunts, the Misses Glenn, over Sunday.

Mrs. L. C. Nixon, of Wilmington, is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Melvin, over Sunday.

Mr. Chas. Sollars was a business visitor in Columbus Friday.

Mr. M. S. Daugherty spent Friday in Columbus.

The Welfare Association helps all needy and deserving poor, without respect to color or creed.

A good many people tell me that I ought to have a larger shop. As the sales barn and stove factory are not for rent or sale, I will stay in my present location. Ladies' sewed suit soles, 50c; Misses sewed soles, 75c; rubber heels 35c. I give rebate stamps. Duffee the shoemaker. Bell phone 493.

Sweet Peas 25c per Bunch at Brown's Drug Store, Saturday.

EAST END PEOPLE EXPRESS REGRET

Words are inadequate to express the feeling that prevailed among the members of Rev. Henness's congregation at East End Chapel when the news reached the ears of the public Friday morning "That Rev. Henness had tendered his resignation" at the congregational meeting on Thursday evening, severing his connection with the local church.

Coming as a thunderbolt from a clear sky, we can but wonder what calamity will befall us next.

KATZ, RUG KING

The work at the Chapel was progressing nicely in every branch, under the wise supervision of Rev. Henness. He and his faithful wife had become entwined in the hearts of the people until it will be hard to sever the bonds of friendship existing between them and members of his congregation.

A call meeting was held Friday evening at the home of Mr. Sherman Reeder, including the church officials, Mr. Reeder, Mr. W. A. Sanders and the Pastor's Aid Committee. Rev. and Mrs. Henness kindly accepted an invitation to meet with us, to see if matters could be adjusted and his pastorate restored, but as present conditions were such that he felt he could not conscientiously labor under, we tried to bow in submission to the wish of our dear pastor and say "Thy will, not ours, be done," and so they go to their new field of labor.

Our wish for them is success and prosperity. Few men possess the true sincerity and integrity which marks the life of Rev. Henness, and where ever his field of labor is situated, will result in good and faithful work for the Master.

MRS. M. O. IRELAND,
East End Secretary.

DEFINITE PLANS ARE GIVEN OUT

The request made by Rev. P. J. Henness at the meeting of Presbytery last Tuesday that he be granted a letter of dismissal from the Chillicothe Presbytery has since been followed by the announcement of Rev. Henness's definite plans.

It is his intention to sever his connection with the First Presbyterian church of this city the last of the month and go at once to his new charge, Peoria, in the Presbytery of Illinois.

Dr. Henness has had the call to the Peoria church under consideration for some time and additional pressure recently brought to bear led to his decision.

Rev. Henness will be greatly missed among the people of Washington and especially in the field of his special labors, the East End Chapel. Both he and his wife have taken an active part in manifold interests for the welfare of the community as well as the religious activity and their removal from Washington will occasion wide spread regret.

TEN BIDDERS ON WASHINGTON AVENUE PAVING

Ten firms of contractors submitted bids on the Washington avenue paving job, and the bids were opened at noon Saturday.

All of the contractors are well known, and a lively scrimmage for the contract is indicated by the low figures of several of the bids.

It is expected that the contract for the job will not be let until sometime next week, and the contractor will be expected to begin the work in short order and complete it as quickly as possible.

The contractors submitting bids are: Kelley Brothers, Portsmouth; Sidney T. Knight, Columbus; Graham & Kinnear, Columbus; C. H. Heffner & Son, Celina; McHugh & McHugh, Springfield; J. S. Wilt, Washington C. H.; Freshwater Brothers, Chester, W. Va.; W. H. Ringwald & Son, Chillicothe; Mr. Tejay, Dayton; Stroudluck Bros., Middletown.

The bids were received by the Board of Public Service.

In Social Circles

Mrs. Robert Howat will entertain the Monday Bridge club next Monday afternoon.

The monthly meeting of Grace Sunday school board proved an occasion of both much interest and pleasure at Grace church Friday night.

Thirty members were seated at half past six o'clock for a particularly tempting supper, a yellow and white color scheme prettily employed with a cluster of jonquils in central table decoration.

Mrs. R. C. Peddicord and Mrs. Scott Hopkins had the supper management in charge.

The evening was profitably spent in the interchange of ideas and plans for Sunday school work. Valuable suggestions were made for the improvement of the school and there is no possible doubt that these board meetings will undoubtedly prove of immense benefit.

Miss Carrie Willis is entertaining this evening, in compliment to her cousin, Mr. Russel Steele, of Chillicothe.

Mrs. P. J. Henness, recently elected president of the Browning Club, is entertaining the Browning club officers this afternoon.

EAST END PEOPLE EXPRESS REGRET

Words are inadequate to express the feeling that prevailed among the members of Rev. Henness's congregation at East End Chapel when the news reached the ears of the public Friday morning "That Rev. Henness had tendered his resignation" at the congregational meeting on Thursday evening, severing his connection with the local church.

Coming as a thunderbolt from a clear sky, we can but wonder what calamity will befall us next.

The work at the Chapel was progressing nicely in every branch, under the wise supervision of Rev. Henness. He and his faithful wife had become entwined in the hearts of the people until it will be hard to sever the bonds of friendship existing between them and members of his congregation.

A call meeting was held Friday evening at the home of Mr. Sherman Reeder, including the church officials, Mr. Reeder, Mr. W. A. Sanders and the Pastor's Aid Committee. Rev. and Mrs. Henness kindly accepted an invitation to meet with us, to see if matters could be adjusted and his pastorate restored, but as present conditions were such that he felt he could not conscientiously labor under, we tried to bow in submission to the wish of our dear pastor and say "Thy will, not ours, be done," and so they go to their new field of labor.

Our wish for them is success and prosperity. Few men possess the true sincerity and integrity which marks the life of Rev. Henness, and where ever his field of labor is situated, will result in good and faithful work for the Master.

MRS. M. O. IRELAND, East End Secretary.

DEFINITE PLANS ARE GIVEN OUT

The request made by Rev. P. J. Henness at the meeting of Presbytery last Tuesday that he be granted a letter of dismissal from the Chillicothe Presbytery has since been followed by the announcement of Rev. Henness's definite plans.

It is his intention to sever his connection with the First Presbyterian church of this city the last of the month and go at once to his new charge, Peoria, in the Presbytery of Illinois.

Dr. Henness has had the call to the Peoria church under consideration for some time and additional pressure recently brought to bear led to his decision.

Rev. Henness will be greatly missed among the people of Washington and especially in the field of his special labors, the East End Chapel. Both he and his wife have taken an active part in manifold interests for the welfare of the community as well as the religious activity and their removal from Washington will occasion wide spread regret.

TEN BIDDERS ON WASHINGTON AVENUE PAVING

Ten firms of contractors submitted bids on the Washington avenue paving job, and the bids were opened at noon Saturday.

All of the contractors are well known, and a lively scrimmage for the contract is indicated by the low figures of several of the bids.

It is expected that the contract for the job will not be let until sometime next week, and the contractor will be expected to begin the work in short order and complete it as quickly as possible.

The contractors submitting bids are: Kelley Brothers, Portsmouth; Sidney T. Knight, Columbus; Graham & Kinnear, Columbus; C. H. Heffner & Son, Celina; McHugh & McHugh, Springfield; J. S. Whit, Washington C. H.; Freshwater Brothers, Chester, W. Va.; W. H. Ringwald & Son, Chillicothe; Mr. Tejay, Dayton; Strodluck Bros., Middletown.

The bids were received by the Board of Public Service.

Wonderful Earthworms.

As Darwin long ago showed, the earthworm is the farmer's friend. Its burrows drain and aerate the soil, while the earth which has passed through its body is finely divided and is constantly being brought to the surface from lower levels. Its body is adapted to the burrowing habit. The pointed head end is devoid of feelers and eyes, and the foot stumps are only represented by rows of bristles, which can be felt if the finger be passed along the body from back to front. There are no jaws, but the muscular part of the digestive tube acts as a kind of pump for taking in food. This includes plants and animals. It has a small gizzard, which contains many stones, and these are used instead of teeth to grind the food.—Chicago Herald.

Tuning Forks.

The tuning fork was the invention of John Stone, royal trumpeter, in 1811. Though the pitch of forks varies slightly with changes of the temperature or by rust, they are the most accurate means of determining pitch. Tuning forks are capable of being made of any pitch within certain limits, but those commonly used are the notes A and C, giving the sounds represented by the second and third spaces in the treble staff.

His Walking War Record.

The Dundee Courier has this laconic war note: "Soldiers can be as laconic as sailors. The late Sir George Groves used to tell of an old soldier who went about begging, bearing a placard: 'Actions, 7; wounds, 9; children, 8; total, 24'."

WATER SHUT OFF DUE TO MISHAP

For nearly one hour Friday afternoon the water company shut off all water while a corporation cock, torn from one of the big mains by the steam plow which is tearing up North street, near the old corporation line, was replaced.

The sharp nosed plow had caught the cock in such a manner that it was torn clear of the mains, and an instant later an inch stream of water was flying fifty feet in the air forced by the enormous pressure of the big main.

The water was shut off so that workmen could make repairs, and within a short time the leak had been stopped and once more the water was turned into the mains.

Come across with your donation to the Welfare Association today.

BROUGHT BACK TO FACE CHARGE

Sheriff Jones returned from Van Wert Saturday morning, bringing with him Varo Sanderson, of near Milledgeville, who has been a fugitive since last December.

The young man was arrested in Paulding county, near the town of Emmett, being located by Sheriff B. F. Zeuber, of Paulding county, who had been notified that the man might appear at the home of a relative in that county. The arrest was made at the home of Cleve Rhodes, and it was necessary to search the residence to locate the fugitive, who had secreted himself about the premises.

When notified that Sanderson was under arrest, Sheriff Jones left Friday morning, returning by way of Dayton and reaching this city Saturday morning, placing his prisoner in jail to await arraignment before Justice T. N. Craig.

The affidavit for the man's arrest was filed before Justice Craig December 2nd, 1914, and Clara Mongold is the girl making the charge. Sanderson became aware of the warrant issued for his arrest and fled. Since that time a constant watch has been maintained in an effort to apprehend him.

HIGH SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

On Monday the Senior class heard the report of the committee on a class play. The committee gave a favorable report in regard to play, coach and especially the costumes. They secured Mrs. Miller, formerly connected with the Purdue University as Coach. Mrs. Miller, on account of the shortness of time, advised two brief plays, instead of one long one.

The committee selected the "Box of Monkeys" and "In The Sleeping Car." The class voted, 26 to 17, to have a play. The players will be selected and the work started next week.

The Junior class has decided to have an entertainment in the High school auditorium soon, to finance the annual Junior-Senior banquet. It is not yet known what it will be, but it is thought there will be some surprises.

The track team yesterday decided to attend the annual track meet at Wilmington College to be held May 7th. The team is now practicing at the fair grounds and doing some strenuous work.

Coach Schlabach is busy showing the candidates for next fall's foot ball team how to handle the pigskin. He is being assisted by Mr. Patton, of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Patton was coach of the champion Springfield H. S. team in 1912.

The Faculty is sorry to announce that the Board of Education has declined to accept the challenge to a basketball game. The student body is much disappointed.

DEATHS

WEAVER.

Ethel Weaver, aged 24, daughter of Leslie Weaver, died at her home in Bloomingburg, Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Baptist church in Bloomingburg. Burial in Bloomingburg cemetery.

96TH BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED

Mr. Wallace Creamer, one of the oldest citizens of the county, celebrated his 96th birthday anniversary at the home of County Commissioner and Mrs. Louis Perrill, near Parretts station.

Mr. Creamer observed the event very quietly, and expects to celebrate quite a number more birthday anniversaries.

For one of such great age Mr. Creamer is unusually active, and he passed through his 96th winter very nicely.

XENIA TO CALL FOR BEAL LAW ELECTION

Xenia, which recently became wet under the constitutional amendment adopted last fall, is preparing to hold a Beal Law election to oust the saloons from that city.

The first petitions were placed in circulation early Saturday morning, and will be presented to council for action in the near future.

PRIMARY ELECTION TUESDAY, AUG. 10

The primary election, for picking candidates for the various municipal offices in towns of over 2,000 population, will be held Tuesday, August 10th, and nomination petitions must be on file 60 days previous to that time.

A great many persons have made inquiry regarding the time of holding the next primary election in this city, many laboring under the belief that the primary would be held sometime this spring.

It will be seen that prospective candidates for the various offices have ample time for entering the ring.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN BEGUN

Washington, D. C., April 17.—The nation wide campaign for the Susan B. Anthony Amendment to the Constitution, to remove the qualification of sex from the ballot, by the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage is going forward with determination. Already a dozen conventions have been arranged, and expert organizers are in the field rounding up the suffragists in every Congressional District in the United States.

This promises to be the busiest and most successful year of the Congressional Union. Miss Alice Paul, and her associates of the Executive Committee of the Union, are going to the states to arouse the women while Congress is not in session. Next December they will be ready to make a formidable stand for their amendment. The back fire campaign is on in earnest.

Immediately following the decision of the Advisory Council at the New York meeting to hold conventions in every state in the Union to plan methods of organizing in each state, the existing sentiment in favor of the Susan B. Anthony Amendment, the work of arranging these conventions has taken a long step forward.

Flies Spread Disease

THERE is plenty of proof that typhoid is due directly to the fly.

The fly carries the contagion not alone from the victim directly, but also from the apparently healthy person who may be what is technically known as a "carrier" to the next victim in the block above.

Tuberculosis can be carried nearly as directly by the fly as by personal contact.

The iniquitous insect spreads spinal meningitis, pneumonia—in fact, every known disease.

HIDDEN WEALTH.

Why It Is Always Wise to Analyze the Earth When Digging.

Material thrown up by burrowing animals or exposed in digging or plowing, and, of course, railway cuttings or any excavations, should be carefully examined for the presence or indications of useful minerals. Fallen stones, especially carried down by rivers, should be carefully inspected, and if any stones of a promising character such as vein rock, which are known as shode stones, be found, the inspection should be continued up the river or the valley. The main may be many miles or only a few feet away from where the stones that belong to the vein now are.

A vein rock usually is of a different degree of hardness to the surrounding rock. It is harder than the surrounding materials. In weathering the outcrop is marked by projecting masses of rocks or depressions, which may be followed by the eye for some distance marking a vein.

These outcrops should be examined to see if they contain any useful mineral or indications of them. If the outcrop presents a spongy looking mass, stained with dark and other hues of brown, it gives a favorable indication. This material is called gossan and is a favorable indication of rich minerals lying underneath.—Chicago Herald.

The Dumb Waiter.

The value of the old fashioned labor saving device, the dumb waiter, cannot be exaggerated. Instead of carrying up the many, many things that daily have to come from the cellar they are placed on the dumb waiter. No energy is wasted, and one trip will save three. It serves the place also of the more modern linen chute. The linen chute is not to be taboed, for it has its uses, but it is practically wasting space to have both it and the dumb waiter. In many houses the dumb waiter stops short at the second floor—the reason why has never been discovered—of sometimes it starts at the first floor instead of in the cellar, another engine. This is as impractical as it would be to have the sidewalk end before it reaches the house. It simply doesn't answer the purpose for which it was intended.—Woman's Home Companion

Grip of the Bulldog.

It is a commonly accepted belief that nothing short of being pried loose will induce a bulldog to give up his grip on another dog or on an intruder, but this is a mistake. A little household ammonia poured on him as near his nose as circumstances will allow will make him let go immediately. The fumes of ammonia are so overpowering that a dog cannot possibly maintain his grip and his breath at the same time.

The best restorative is sleep.

The best stimulant is exercise.

HIGH SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

On Monday the Senior class heard the report of the committee on a class play. The committee gave a favorable report in regard to play, coach and especially the costumes. They secured Mrs. Miller, formerly connected with the Purdue University as Coach. Mrs. Miller, on account of the shortness of time, advised two brief plays, instead of one long one.

The committee selected the "Box of Monkeys" and "In The Sleeping Car." The class voted, 26 to 17, to have a play. The players will be selected and the work started next week.

The Junior class has decided to have an entertainment in the High school auditorium soon, to finance the annual Junior-Senior banquet. It is not yet known what it will be, but it is thought there will be some surprises.

The track team yesterday decided to attend the annual track meet at Wilmington College to be held May 7th. The team is now practicing at the fair grounds and doing some strenuous work.

Coach Schlabach is busy showing the candidates for next fall's football team how to handle the pigskin. He is being assisted by Mr. Patton, of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Patton was coach of the champion Springfield H. S. team in 1912.

The Faculty is sorry to announce that the Board of Education has declined to accept the challenge to a basketball game. The student body is much disappointed.

DEATHS

WEAVER.

Ethel Weaver, aged 24, daughter of Leslie Weaver, died at her home in Bloomington, Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Baptist church in Bloomington. Burial in Bloomington cemetery.

96TH BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED

Mr. Wallace Creamer, one of the oldest citizens of the county, celebrated his 96th birthday anniversary at the home of County Commissioner and Mrs. Louis Perrill, near Parretts station.

Mr. Creamer observed the event very quietly, and expects to celebrate quite a number more birthday anniversaries.

For one of such great age Mr. Creamer is unusually active, and he passed through his 96th winter very nicely.

XENIA TO CALL FOR BEAL LAW ELECTION

Xenia, which recently became wet under the constitutional amendment adopted last fall, is preparing to hold a Beal Law election to oust the saloons from that city.

The first petitions were placed in circulation early Saturday morning, and will be presented to council for action in the near future.

PRIMARY ELECTION TUESDAY, AUG. 10

The primary election, for picking candidates for the various municipal offices in towns of over 2,000 population, will be held Tuesday, August 10th, and nomination petitions must be on file 60 days previous to that time.

A great many persons have made inquiry regarding the time of holding the next primary election in this city, many laboring under the belief that the primary would be held sometime this spring.

It will be seen that prospective candidates for the various offices have ample time for entering the ring.

EQUAL SUFFRAGE CAMPAIGN BEGUN

Washington, D. C., April 17.—The nation wide campaign for the Susan B. Anthony Amendment to the Constitution, to remove the qualification of sex from the ballot, by the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage is going forward with determination. Already a dozen conventions have been arranged, and expert organizers are in the field rounding up the suffragists in every Congressional District in the United States.

This promises to be the busiest and most successful year of the Congressional Union. Miss Alice Paul, and her associates of the Executive Committee of the Union, are going to the states to arouse the women while Congress is not in session. Next December they will be ready to make a formidable stand for their amendment. The back fire campaign is on in earnest.

Immediately following the decision of the Advisory Council at the New York meeting to hold conventions in every state in the Union to plan methods of organizing in each state, the existing sentiment in favor of the Susan B. Anthony Amendment, the work of arranging these conventions has taken a long step forward.

Flies Spread Disease

THERE is plenty of proof that typhoid is due directly to the fly.

The fly carries the contagion not alone from the victim directly, but also from the apparently healthy person who may be what is technically known as a "carrier" to the next victim in the block above.

Tuberculosis can be carried nearly as directly by the fly as by personal contact.

The inquisitive insect spreads spinal meningitis, pneumonia—in fact, every known disease.

HIDDEN WEALTH.

Why It Is Always Wise to Analyze the Earth When Digging.

Material thrown up by burrowing animals or exposed in digging or plowing, and, of course, railway cuttings or any excavations, should be carefully examined for the presence or indications of useful minerals. Fallen stones, especially carried down by rivers, should be carefully inspected, and if any stones of a promising character such as vein rock, which are known as shale stones, be found, the inspection should be continued up the river or the valley. The main may be many miles or only a few feet away from where the stones that belong to the vein now are.

A vein rock usually is of a different degree of hardness to the surrounding rock. It is harder than the surrounding materials. In weathering the outcrop is marked by projecting masses of rocks or depressions, which may be followed by the eye for some distance marking a vein.

These outcrops should be examined to see if they contain any useful mineral or indications of them. If the outcrop presents a spongy looking mass, stained with dark and other hues of brown, it gives a favorable indication. This material is called gossan and is a favorable indication of rich minerals lying underneath.—Chicago Herald.

The Dumb Waiter.

The value of the old fashioned labor saving device, the dumb waiter, cannot be exaggerated. Instead of carrying up the many, many things that daily have to come from the cellar they are placed on the dumb waiter. No energy is wasted, and one trip will save three. It serves the place also of the more modern linen chute. The linen chute is not to be tabooed, for it has its uses, but it is practically wasting space to have both it and the dumb waiter. In many houses the dumb waiter stops short at the second floor—the reason why has never been discovered—or sometimes it starts at the first floor instead of in the cellar, another error. This is as impractical as it would be to have the sidewalk end before it reaches the house. It simply doesn't answer the purpose for which it was intended.—Woman's Home Companion

Grip of the Bulldog.

It is a commonly accepted belief that nothing short of being pried loose will induce a bulldog to give up his grip on another dog or on an intruder, but this is a mistake. A little household ammonia poured on him as near his nose as circumstances will allow will make him let go immediately. The fumes of ammonia are so overpowering that a dog cannot possibly maintain his grip and his breath at the same time.

In Social Circles

Mrs. Robert Howat will entertain the Monday Bridge club next Monday afternoon.

The monthly meeting of Grace Sunday school board proved an occasion of both much interest and pleasure at Grace church Friday night.

Thirty members were seated at half past six o'clock for a particularly tempting supper, a yellow and white color scheme prettily employed with a cluster of jonquills in central table decoration.

Mrs. H. C. Peddicord and Mrs. Scott Hopkins had the supper management in charge.

The evening was profitably spent in the interchange of ideas and plans for Sunday school work. Valuable suggestions were made for the improvement of the school and there is no possible doubt that these board meetings will undoubtedly prove of immense benefit.

Miss Carrie Willis is entertaining this evening, in compliment to her cousin, Mr. Russel Steele, of Chillicothe.

Mrs. P. J. Henness, recently elected president of the Browning Club, is entertaining the Browning club officers this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Hamilton are entertaining over Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton, of Columbus, Mr. Morris Hamilton and daughter, Jane, of Leavenworth Kansas.

Washington friends will be interested to learn of the birth of a second son to Mr. and Mrs. James Patton (nee Marguerite Courtwright of Circleville) at their home in Orange, N. J.

Miss Gertrude Ware came up from Frankfort Friday evening to be the guest of Mrs. Clay Johnson, of Dayton, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McCoy.

Mrs. Margaret Davenport went to Circleville Saturday morning for a few days' visit with friends.

Mrs. H. H. Elliott is visiting in Wilmington.

Albert Briggs and Russel Mobley were visitors in Columbus Saturday.

Mrs. Will E. Dale and Mrs. George Gregg joined Mrs. Stanley Schneider at the home of Mr. Schneider's parents in Cincinnati Saturday to remain until Sunday evening, when they will accompany Mrs. Schneider and baby home from a week's visit.

Mrs. T. M. Saxton is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harold Inskeep on the Bogus Road.

Miss Dora Schmokey returned to her home in Chillicothe Friday, after a visit with Mrs. W. D. Chaney.

Mrs. Anna Ward and Mrs. Andrews, of Derby, are shopping visitors here today.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Paulin and Miss Paulin, of Sedalia spent Saturday in this city shopping.

Miss Helen Palmer will spend Sunday the guest of friends in Columbus.

Mr. Orris McGinnis is spending Sunday in Columbus the guest of Mr. Fred Hall.

Mrs. R. R. Kibler and daughter Maxine spent yesterday in Cincinnati. Today Maxine accompanied her little cousin Virginia Glenn, to Columbus to be the guests of their aunts, the Misses Glenn, over Sunday.

Mrs. L. C. Nixon, of Wilmington, is the guest of Mrs. J. A. Melvin, over Sunday.

Mr. Chas. Sollars was a business visitor in Columbus Friday.

Mr. M. S. Daugherty spent Friday in Columbus.

KATZ, RUG KING

The work at the Chapel was progressing nicely in every branch, under the wise supervision of Rev. Henness. He and his faithful wife had become entwined in the hearts of the people until it will be hard to sever the bonds of friendship existing between them and members of his congregation.

A call meeting was held Friday evening at the home of Mr. Sherman Reeder, including the church officials, Mr. Reeder, Mr. W. A. Sanders and the Pastor's Aid Committee. Rev. and Mrs. Henness kindly accepted an invitation to meet with us, to see if matters could be adjusted and his pastorate restored, but as present conditions were such that he felt he could not conscientiously labor under, we tried to bow in submission to the wish of our dear pastor and say "Thy will, not ours, be done," and so they go to their new field of labor.

Our wish for them is success and prosperity. Few men possess the true sincerity and integrity which marks the life of Rev. Henness, and where ever his field of labor is situated, will result in good and faithful work for the Master.

MRS. M. O. IRELAND,
East End Secretary.

DEFINITE PLANS ARE GIVEN OUT

The request made by Rev. P. J. Henness at the meeting of Presbyterian last Tuesday that he be granted a letter of dismissal from the Chillicothe Presbytery has since been followed by the announcement of Rev. Henness's definite plans.

It is his intention to sever his connection with the First Presbyterian church of this city the last of the month and go at once to his new charge, Peoria, in the Presbytery of Illinois.

Dr. Henness has had the call to the Peoria church under consideration for some time and additional pressure recently brought to bear led to his decision.

Rev. Henness will be greatly missed among the people of Washington and especially in the field of his special labors, the East End Chapel. Both he and his wife have taken an active part in manifold interests for the welfare of the community as well as the religious activity and their removal from Washington will occasion wide spread regret.

TEN BIDDERS ON WASHINGTON AVENUE PAVING

Ten firms of contractors submitted bids on the Washington avenue paving job, and the bids were opened at noon Saturday.

All of the contractors are well known, and a lively scrimmage for the contract is indicated by the low figures of several of the bids.

It is expected that the contract for the job will not be let until sometime next week, and the contractor will be expected to begin the work in short order and complete it as quickly as possible.

The contractors submitting bids are: Kelley Brothers, Portsmouth; Sidney T. Knight, Columbus; Graham & Kinnear, Columbus; C. H. Heffner & Son, Celina; McHugh & McHugh, Springfield; J. S. Wilt, Washington C. H.; Freshwater Brothers, Chester, W. Va.; W. H. Ringwald & Son, Chillicothe; Mr. Tejay, Dayton; Strodluck Bros., Middletown.

DEFINITE PLANS ARE GIVEN OUT

The request made by Rev. P. J. Henness at the meeting of Presbyterian last Tuesday that he be granted a letter of dismissal from the Chillicothe Presbytery has since been followed by the announcement of Rev. Henness's definite plans.

It is his intention to sever his connection with the First Presbyterian church of this city the last of the month and go at once to his new charge, Peoria, in the Presbytery of Illinois.

Dr. Henness has had the call to the Peoria church under consideration for some time and additional pressure recently brought to bear led to his decision.

Rev. Henness will be greatly missed among the people of Washington and especially in the field of his special labors, the East End Chapel. Both he and his wife have taken an active part in manifold interests for the welfare of the community as well as the religious activity and their removal from Washington will occasion wide spread regret.

TEN BIDDERS ON WASHINGTON AVENUE PAVING

Ten firms of contractors submitted bids on the Washington avenue paving job, and the bids were opened at noon Saturday.

All of the contractors are well known, and a lively scrimmage for the contract is indicated by the low figures of several of the bids.

It is expected that the contract for the job will not be let until sometime next week, and the contractor will be expected to begin the work in short order and complete it as quickly as possible.

The contractors submitting bids are: Kelley Brothers, Portsmouth; Sidney T. Knight, Columbus; Graham & Kinnear, Columbus; C. H. Heffner & Son, Celina; McHugh & McHugh, Springfield; J. S. Whit, Washington C. H.; Freshwater Brothers, Chester, W. Va.; W. H. Ringwald & Son, Chillicothe; Mr. Tejay, Dayton; Strodluck Bros., Middletown.

The bids were received by the Board of Public Service.

Wonderful Earthworms.
As Darwin long ago showed, the earthworm is the farmer's friend. Its burrows drain and aerate the soil, while the earth which has passed through its body is finely divided and is constantly being brought to the surface from lower levels. Its body is adapted to the burrowing habit. The pointed head end is devoid of feelers and eyes, and the foot stumps are only represented by rows of bristles, which can be felt if the finger be passed along the body from back to front. There are no jaws, but the muscular part of the digestive tube acts as a kind of pump for taking in food. This includes plants and animals. It has a small gizzard, which contains many stones, and these are used instead of teeth to grind the food. —Chicago Herald.

Tuning Forks.
The tuning fork was the invention of John Stone, royal trumpeter, in 1811. Though the pitch of forks varies slightly with changes of the temperature or by rust, they are the most accurate means of determining pitch. Tuning forks are capable of being made of any pitch within certain limits, but those commonly used are the notes A and C, giving the sounds represented by the second and third spaces in the treble staff.

His Walking War Record.
The Dundee Courier has this laconic war note:
"Soldiers can be as laconic as sailors. The late Sir George Groves used to tell of an old soldier who went about begging, bearing a placard: 'Actions, 7; wounds, 9; children, 8; total, 24.'"

THIRD AIR RAID FUTILE

London, April 17.—Reports received today say that German air craft appeared over Ipswich, Felixstowe and Colchester, in Suffolk, on the East Anglia coast. Seven bombs were dropped in the neighborhood of Colchester. The government has issued warnings for the entire coast and the mouth of the river Stour.

London, April 17.—The third German air raid was experienced by England within forty-eight hours, but the last, like those immediately preceding it, resulted in no loss of life and no serious damage to property.

Taking advantage of fine weather, which enabled a Zeppelin to visit the vicinity of the Tyne and the coasts of Suffolk and Essex, a German aeroplane, having crossed the North sea, flew over the county of Kent, dropping bombs. In all four missiles were dropped, in the vicinity of the towns of Faversham and Sittingbourne, the latter just across the Humber from the Isle of Sheppey. All the bombs fell in fields.

From Sittingbourne the aeroplane flew over the Isle of Sheppey, and it is thought probable the raider mistook the towns attacked for Sheerness, the British naval base, which is on the other side of the island. On his way the airman passed over Canterbury and other towns in Kent, but did not loose an explosive projectile upon or near them.

Zeppelins, for it is believed there were two of them, which visited East Anglia, dropped some twenty-five incendiary and explosive bombs on Lowestoft, Southwold, Maldon, Burnham-on-the-Crouch, Heybridge and Tillingham, but, like the raid of the previous night on the Tynemouth district, only property damage was done, and little at that, although a number of persons had very narrow escapes. In Lowestoft a bomb dropped in a garden, shattered a row of small houses, and people sleeping in them were cut by broken glass.

During the three raids at least fifty bombs were sent down by the Germans. Either by error or purposely, the airman seem to have kept away from the larger towns. There they might have been discovered by searchlights and come under fire from the land. There is an inclination here to consider the raid only in the nature of reconnaissances, for, except in the case of aeroplane bases, points of military importance were avoided, although in each case air craft passed within a short distance of such places.

In view of this belief, extra precautions are being taken while the fine weather lasts. The allies already are making reprisals for all German attacks over the fighting zone, and it is considered here to be likely that the raids over England will receive their reply before long.

THE OHIO COMMISSION FOR THE BLIND

The state of Ohio, the counties, cities and private individuals of the state are spending over $200,000 every year for the instruction and maintenance of the needlessly blind.

One of the chief functions of the Ohio Commission for the Blind is the prevention of unnecessary blindness. One of the most common causes of the impairment of the sight is eye strain, and there are few school children and others who work by artificial light that are not daily straining their eyes to excess.

While other states are spending thousands of dollars annually to save hogs from cholera and cattle from infectious diseases, the state of Ohio has the unique distinction of spending a few dollars to save the eyesight of its citizens.

If the sight of only one child is saved the small expenditure is a good one for the state. The cost of training and after-care to the state and the family of only one needlessly blind person is much greater than the cost of this campaign to save eyes. If those who are beyond aid and are spending their lives sitting in the darkness of their own fireside can be made to appreciate some of the beauties of life, in spite of their blindness, if their minds can be taken from their affliction, and they are provided with remunerative and enjoyable work, who can say that the money is not well spent?

The Ohio Commission for the Blind hopes to save the sight of many, to alleviate the condition of those already blind in every nook and corner of the state, and with this object in view the members of the commission are devoting much time and attention without receiving a penny for this service.

NEVER READ FACING THE LIGHT

RIGHT AND WRONG POSITION IN READING.

THIS is another slogan of the Ohio Commission for the Blind in its campaign to save sight. The commission does not claim that to read facing the light will make you blind, but it is self-evident that when reading in front of a strong light you are making your eyes do double duty. It is well known that it is impossible to take a photograph with the camera facing the sun, because it "fogs the plate." In the same way the strong light strains the eyes when at the same time they are being used to read.

All that is needed to overcome this is to turn your back to the light, so that the book or paper is well lighted, but the eyes are in the shadow.

SAVING SIGHT SAVES DOLLARS

BEFORE AND AFTER SCIENTIFIC TREATMENT.

WHEN the mother removed the dirty cloth from the eyes of the baby for our representative to take the photograph, the child screamed because the light hurt its eyes.

The special eye nurse for the Ohio Commission for the Blind found this child in the above condition. Prompt and proper medical attention was advised and a few months later the same baby was well and happy as is evident by the second picture.

The Ohio Commission for the Blind is urging citizens of the state to secure prompt expert medical advice from a reliable eye doctor for all eye ailments.

A farmer insists upon having good shoes for his horses, why not as good treatment for people's eyes. The Ohio Commission for the Blind urges everyone to avoid eye remedies and treatments that are not recommended by competent eye doctors.

YOUR EYES ARE YOUR BREAD WINNERS: TAKE CARE OF THEM.

UNNECESSARY STRAIN RUINS EYESIGHT

BOY READING WITH AND WITHOUT GLASSES.

UNNECESSARILY straining the eyes by holding the book close to the face is one of the common forms of neglecting the sight. In almost every school pupils can be found who are holding their books close to the eyes in order to read. They do not realize that this is not the normal condition, and that if they will go to an expert eye doctor and have their eyes fitted with glasses that this trouble can be overcome.

The Ohio Commission for the Blind is urging that all school children shall have their eyes properly examined.

The lad in the accompanying illustration did not know that he was injuring his eyes by reading as he is in the second position. After he had been examined by a competent eye doctor, spectacles were provided and he is now able to hold his book as we all should when reading.

ENGLAND TO SEIZE FOES

Seattle, Wash., April 17.—The British admiralty notified American steamship companies operating between Seattle and Alaska ports and Seattle and San Francisco that all German, Austrian or Turkish passengers or members of the crews would be removed from any vessel calling at a Canadian port and held as prisoners of war.

As a result of the order, the Pacific Coast Steamship company discharged ten German members of the crew of the steamship President, which sailed for San Francisco.

Two German passengers who had purchased their tickets were not allowed to board the President. Two others, who had taken out their first naturalization papers, insisted that they were entitled to be considered American citizens, and were taken aboard.

TURKS DEFEATED AND THROWN BACK

London, April 17.—The India office announces that the Turks were driven from their advanced position at Zohair (ten miles southwest of Basra), south of the Shaliba fort, on April 14. "The enemy's strength was 15,000 men," the announcement says. "The loss on our side was about 700 of all ranks."

His report also showed that the Japanese had colliers and supply ships there and that they were making liberal use of the waters of Turtle Bay and the adjacent shore. Officials here are inclined to see in the incident a strong hint of the possibilities of the situation rather than anything which should cause immediate concern to the United States government. It is not doubted here that the Japanese are doing as they please in Turtle bay to a much greater extent than would be the case were there a real government in Mexico.

Some naval officers are concerned over the fact that the Japanese now have in the American Pacific a naval force stronger than that of the United States.

SPORT LETTER

Cincinnati, April 17, 1915.
 As this is being written the merry crack of the bat and the frenzied shrieks of tens of thousands of spectators are heard in many of the big league cities of the land, marking the opening of the baseball season of 1915. Here in Cincinnati the Reds are hooked up with the Pittsburgh Pirates, and while the first few games will hardly indicate the real strength of the opposing teams, there is bound to be a sufficient amount of talent displayed to give the fans a better idea of the real strength of the Reds than they now have. It is universally conceded that the Reds are stronger in three departments than they were last season, and that the pitching staff also appears to have been greatly improved. This latter proposition remains to be proved. There is no doubt that in the matter of fielding, batting and base running the aggregation is far and away better than was the gang that finished last in 1914.
 No team in either the National or the American League has done so well in its spring exhibition games as did the Reds. The majors played against were three of the niftiest in the American League—the Washingtons, Detroit and Boston—and all had their strongest combinations in the field. There was nothing fluky about those games, showing that the improvement of the Reds was based on substantial foundations. And with Herzog back in the line-up—he played in none of the games against the American League teams—further strength both in defense and offense will be noted.

 Several important changes are noted in the line-up of the Pittsburgh team, the most important of which is the switching of Hans Wagner, the glorious old veteran, to second base, and placing Jimmy Viox on third. This combination is appearing on the local lot at present, and will be seen again on Sunday, May 9. Out of town fans also will have early opportunities of sizing up the St. Louis Cardinals, who come on Sunday, April 18, for a series of games and the Chicago, in their line-up, when they appear here on Sunday, April 25.
 The United States has not yet ceased to jubilate over the victory which crowned the brow of Jess Willard, the husky Kansan, in his fight with Jack Johnson for the heavyweight championship of the world. Willard is being lionized throughout the East, but seems to be taking his honors modestly, a fact which is adding greatly to his popularity.
 So far only one real proposition has been made to the new champion for a match, this being an offer from the National Sporting Club, of London, which would match him with Frank Moran, the Pittsburgh freight car. Moran, it will be recalled, was put away by Jack Johnson in France less than a year ago. Since that time Johnson has gone back, while Moran may have improved, thereby making possible a lively scrap, should Willard and Moran get together. However, it is not likely that Willard will fight for nearly a year, as he is anxious to secure a return on the pugilistic capital which he amassed by defeating Johnson.
 At least six American stables will be represented in the running of the English Derby, which will be an event on the English turf this year, despite the big war in Europe. Those who will have starters in the most famous race in the world are August Belmont, Louis Winans, Charles Carroll, Thomas Ryan, Harry Payne Whitney and Hermaph Duryea.
 So far none of the American horses are figuring strongly in the betting, but one never can tell when one of these nags from Uncle Sam's territory will develop something extraordinary. There are about twenty horses owned by Americans eligible for the big event, but of these probably less than half a dozen will start.
 In this connection an interesting bit of gossip from France, where the Duryea horses are in training, to the effect that all of this American's thoroughbreds are now being groomed by women, all the male attaches of the stable having gone to war.
 C. H. ZUBER.

RIDDLE IS BOUND OVER

Lima, O., April 17.—Dorance Riddle, twenty-five, under arrest for the murder of Miss Susie Coleman, sixteen, and who, the police say, made a confession of the crime, was arraigned in police court on a charge of second degree murder. He pleaded not guilty, waived examination and was held to the grand jury under $20,000 bond.

STATE WOULD CLEAR UP BIG CHICAGO STRIKE

Chicago, April 17.—Members of the state board of arbitration have been ordered by Governor Dunne to offer their services to Chicago building trades workmen and their employers, in the interest of industrial peace. A call was issued immediately for a meeting of the board, to be held Monday.
 The strike order issued by the carpenters' district council was followed by a retaliative measure in the form of a lockout of 16,000 carpenters engaged in construction work all over Cook county. The lockout debarred the union carpenters from work on 4,000 buildings, which are being erected by 1,200 contractors, who are pledged and bonded to maintain their stand until every union in the structural trades comes to terms. The terms include an anti-strike agreement covering a period of three years. The union leaders declared that the strike would not end until the demands of the men for an increase in wages of 5 cents an hour had been granted.
 It was estimated that 125,000 wage earners in Chicago were made jobless, for the lockout and strike tied up operations on $30,000,000 worth of work. Besides the total of 60,000 unionists of various branches of the building trades, at least 60,000 more men and women in shops and mills that furnish material for buildings were laid off, and in addition hundreds of others dependent on building construction for work.

SISTER: READ MY FREE OFFER!

I am a woman.
 I know a woman's trials.
 I know her need of sympathy and help.
 If you, my sister, are unhappy because of ill-health, if you feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or daily employment, write and tell me just how you suffer, and ask for my free ten days' trial of a home treatment suited to your needs. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any man. I want to tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 12 cents a week.
 If you suffer from women's peculiar ailments causing pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight and dragging-down sensation, falling or displacement of pelvic organs, causing kidney and bladder weakness or constipation and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, fear of something evil about to happen, creeping feeling along the spine, palpitation, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast, or a general feeling that life is not worth living.

! INVITE YOU TO SEND TODAY FOR MY FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT

and learn how these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at home without the dangers and expense of an operation. When you are cured, and able to enjoy life again, you can pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain how to overcome green sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women and restore them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your daughter. Remember, it costs you nothing to give my home treatment a ten days' trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If health is worth asking for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free treatment, including my illustrated booklet, "Woman's Own Medical Adviser." I will send all in plain wrappers post-paid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your feelings, and return to me. Send today, as you may not see this offer again. Address,

SISTER: READ MY FREE OFFER!

I am a woman. I know a woman's trials. I know her need of sympathy and help. If you, my sister, are unhappy because of ill-health, if you feel unfit for household duties, social pleasures, or daily employment, write and tell me just how you suffer, and ask for my free ten days' trial of a home treatment suited to your needs. Men cannot understand women's sufferings. What we women know from experience, we know better than any man. I want to tell you how to cure yourself at home at a cost of about 12 cents a week.

If you suffer from women's peculiar ailments causing pain in the head, back, or bowels, feeling of weight and dragging-down sensation, falling or displacement of pelvic organs, causing kidney and bladder weakness or constipation and piles, painful or irregular periods, catarrhal conditions and discharges, extreme nervousness, depressed spirits, melancholy, desire to cry, hot flashes, weariness, sallow complexion with dark circles under the eyes, pain in the left breast, or a general feeling that life is not worth living.

I INVITE YOU TO SEND TODAY FOR MY FREE TEN DAYS' TREATMENT

and learn how these ailments can be easily and surely conquered at home without the dangers and expense of an operation. When you are cured, and able to enjoy life again, you can pass the good word along to some other sufferer. My home treatment is for young or old. To Mothers of Daughters, I will explain how to overcome green sickness (chlorosis), irregularities, headaches, and lassitude in young women and restore them to plumpness and health. Tell me if you are worried about your trial, and does not interfere with daily work. If health is worth asking for, then accept my generous offer and write for the free treatment, including my illustrated booklet, "Woman's Own Medical Adviser." I will send all in plain wrappers post-paid. To save time, you can cut out this offer, mark your feelings, and return to me. Send today, as you may not see this offer again. Address:

ELITES PLAY HERE SUNDAY

POSTPONED GAME WILL BE SHUFFLED OFF AT ATHLETIC PARK WITH STRONG AGGREGATION IN FIELD — RUNNELS CAPTAIN THIS YEAR.

The postponed opening of the baseball season in Washington will take place Sunday at Athletic park. The weather man, who went back on the bunch last Sunday, promises a warm day with plenty of sunshine, and if he's not kidding the initial clash should be a ringer.

The Springfield Elites have played here before and were considered one of the Athletic's toughest antagonists. Washington's lineup this year looks 100 per cent good at the present time, with plenty of good bench material.

Fans are worked to a fever pitch, heightened by the unavoidable postponement, and a record crowd is expected to see the season off.

Runnels has been chosen to captain the nine this year, succeeding Corwin, diamond director of last season. Noon will continue in the capacity of manager.

The batting order for the opening game is as follows:

Springfield: Aple, ss; Hennig, 2b; Rush, cf; Driscoll, 1b; Wolbert, c; Renner, 3b; Goralsky, lf; Temple, rf; Calhoun, Shaffer, Yokum, p.

Washington—Reed, 3b; Jones, cf; Corwin, ss; Runnels, 2b; Noon, 1b; Walton, rf; Mobley, lf; Hagerty, c; Linson, Reno, p.

Game will start at 2:30. Players are expected to be on the ground in uniform at 1:15.

AT THE EMPIRE

The Shannon Stock Company will play a three night engagement at the Empire Theater, commencing Monday, April 19. Among the plays this season are to be found such well known successes as A Great Game; The Opera Singer, A Romance of Virginia, and Wedded and Parted. The four Shannons are re-united this season playing a short spring engagement. Miss Hazel Shannon having just closed an engagement with "September Morn" making a big hit as The Dancer. She and Harry Shannon Jr. will be seen in some of the late society dances.

The opening bill will be "A Great Game," a powerful dramatic story bubbling over with bright comedy.

The prices will be 15c, 20c, and 30c. Seats on sale at Leland's News Stand. Ladies free Monday night if accompanied by a paid 30c ticket.

Tickets are also being sold at the Y. M. C. A.

KOBER CASE IS IGNORED BY JURY

The Madison county grand jury this week ignored the charge of embezzlement against Ex-Mayor Kober, of Mt. Sterling. It was alleged that the ex-mayor had misappropriated certain funds collected, but after examining several witnesses the grand jury ignored the case.

Mr. Kober is now located at Bidwell, Gallia county, where he operates a poultry farm. He will be remembered as the man who brought to attention of the local authorities a murder committed in the English addition, a year or more ago, when a woman is alleged to have strangled her infant. The woman later was adjudged insane and sent to the State Hospital, but was released from that institution several months ago.

The actual work of raising the American submarine F-4, which foundered in Honolulu harbor, has been begun, following the feat accomplished by chief gunner's mate, Frank Grilley, who descended to a depth of 288 feet, where he found the ill-fated submarine lying on the ocean's floor. The diver descended to the sandy bottom in five minutes, remained there twelve minutes and was drawn to the surface in one hour and forty-five minutes.

COLOR AND MOISTURE.

There is a Good Reason Why Vegetation is Mostly Green.

Doubtless many have wondered why the vegetation of the earth is mostly green. That is, not what makes it green, but why it is that color instead of blue or red or purple.

Moisture, it has been found, will be collected by the green foliage in proper quantities while foliage of other colors will not be properly nourished by the dew and moisture from earth and atmosphere.

A rather curious experiment proves this.

Paint a piece of glass yellow, another green and one red and one black and place all these painted pieces of glass out in the open air over night during a summer or autumn night.

When examined early the following morning it will be found that the yellow piece will be very wet and the green piece only fairly moist, while the red and black pieces will be dry.

This is proof that yellow foliage would collect too much dampness, and the red and black would gather none. Green, which collects the medium amount of moisture, seems to be the color best adapted to the conditions existing throughout the earth.

Yellow foliage has been known to damp off and decay under the same conditions that makes green foliage thrive.

A few yellow leaved plants are grown under considerable difficulty under ordinary weather conditions.—New York American.

A RECORD PRESCRIPTION.

After it Was Bought and Paid For it Lost Its Charm.

The largest amount ever officially recorded as the purchase price of a prescription is $5,000 ($25,000, paid by the British parliament to a Mrs. Stevens to reveal the ingredients of her cure for "gravel and stone in the bladder and kidneys." Parliament voted this amount to satisfy the demands of the British public; also because Mrs. Stevens would not take a penny less for her secret.

The ingredients as revealed by Mrs. Stevens were as follows: "Eggshells, snails (shells and all, hips and haws, ash keys, swine cress and various other vegetables all burned to a cinder, and the ash mixed with camomile flowers and fennel and other vegetables."

Curiously enough, when this high priced prescription was made public it immediately lost its potency—and its popularity. New cases failed to respond to its magic, and cases which had been cured while its mysteries were still unrevealed promptly developed new symptoms. At the end of a year it was practically forgotten. But its price record still stands; also the record of one instance in which a British parliament failed to get its money's worth.—Los Angeles Times.

Snuff Spoons.

All the world is familiar with snuff boxes, but snuff spoons are pretty little refinements of which this generation has hardly heard. Very probably they came into use about two years after Sir George Rooke's expedition to Vigo bay in 1702, when he captured half a ton of tobacco and snuff from the Spanish galleons, and snuff thus became a common article in England. One of the characters in a comedy published at Oxford in 1704, entitled "An Act at Oxford," by Thomas Baker, says, "But I carry sweet snuff for the ladies," to which Arabella replies: "A spoon too. That's very gallant, for to see some people run their fat fingers into a box is as nauseous as eating without a fork." In the forties and fifties of the last century snuff spoons were still in use on the Scottish border. They were of bone and of a size to go into the snuffbox. People fed their noses. It was said, as naturally as they carried soap to their mouths.—London Mail.

"I hate to be contradicted," she said. "Then I won't contradict you," he returned.

"You don't love me," she asserted. "I don't," he admitted. "You are a hateful thing!" she cried. "I am," he replied. "I believe you are trying to tease me," she said.

"I am," he conceded. "And you do not love me." "I don't."

For a moment she was silent. "Well," she said at last, "I do hate a man who's weak enough to be led by a woman."—Houston Post.

Optimist and Pessimist.

In a contest in the Woman's Home Companion the first prize for the definition of pessimist went to Miss D. McKelvey of Colorado, who wrote: "A pessimist is a man who knows the price of everything and the value of nothing." The first prize for the definition of optimist went to Mrs. L. K. Carter of Pennsylvania. Her definition follows: "An optimist is one who thinks the high cost of living is worth the price."

KOBER CASE IS IGNORED BY JURY

The Madison county grand jury this week ignored the charge of embezzlement against Ex-Mayor Kober, of Mt. Sterling. It was alleged that the ex-mayor had misappropriated certain funds collected, but after examining several witnesses the grand jury ignored the case.

Mr. Kober is now located at Bidwell, Gallia county, where he operates a poultry farm. He will be remembered as the man who brought to attention of the local authorities a murder committed in the English addition, a year or more ago, when a woman is alleged to have strangled her infant. The woman later was adjudged insane and sent to the State Hospital, but was released from that institution several months ago.

Diver Breaks All Records When He Descends 288 Feet.

The actual work of raising the American submarine F-4, which foundered in Honolulu harbor, has been begun, following the feat accomplished by chief gunner's mate, Frank Grilley, who descended to a depth of 288 feet, where he found the ill-fated submarine lying on the ocean's floor. The diver descended to the sandy bottom in five minutes, remained there twelve minutes and was drawn to the surface in one hour and forty-five minutes.

COLOR AND MOISTURE.

There is a Good Reason Why Vegetation is Mostly Green.

Doubtless many have wondered why the vegetation of the earth is mostly green. That is, not what makes it green, but why it is that color instead of blue or red or purple.

Moisture, it has been found, will be collected by the green foliage in proper quantities while foliage of other colors will not be properly nourished by the dew and moisture from earth and atmosphere.

A rather curious experiment proves this.

Paint a piece of glass yellow, another green and one red and one black and place all these painted pieces of glass out in the open air over night during a summer or autumn night.

When examined early the following morning it will be found that the yellow piece will be very wet and the green piece only fairly moist, while the red and black pieces will be dry.

This is proof that yellow foliage would collect too much dampness, and the red and black would gather none. Green, which collects the medium amount of moisture, seems to be the color best adapted to the conditions existing throughout the earth.

Yellow foliage has been known to damp off and decay under the same conditions that makes green foliage thrive.

A RECORD PRESCRIPTION.

After It Was Bought and Paid For It Lost Its Charm.

The largest amount ever officially recorded as the purchase price of a prescription is $5,000 ($25,000), paid by the British parliament to a Mrs. Stevens to reveal the ingredients of her cure for "gravel and stone in the bladder and kidneys." Parliament voted this amount to satisfy the demands of the British public; also because Mrs. Stevens would not take a penny less for her secret.

The ingredients as revealed by Mrs. Stevens were as follows: "Eggs, snails (shells and all, hips and haws, ash keys, swine cress and various other vegetables all burned to a cinder, and the ash mixed with camomile flowers and fennel and other vegetables."

Curiously enough, when this high priced prescription was made public it immediately lost its potency—and its popularity. New cases failed to respond to its magic, and cases which had been cured while its mysteries were still unrevealed promptly developed new symptoms. At the end of a year it was practically forgotten. But its price record still stands; also the record of one instance in which a British parliament failed to get its money's worth.—Los Angeles Times.

Snuff Spoons.

All the world is familiar with snuff boxes, but snuff spoons are pretty little refinements of which this generation has hardly heard. Very probably they came into use about two years after Sir George Rooke's expedition to Vigo bay in 1702, when he captured half a ton of tobacco and snuff from the Spanish galleons, and snuff thus became a common article in England. One of the characters in a comedy published at Oxford in 1704, entitled "An Act at Oxford," by Thomas Baker, says, "But I carry sweet snuff for the ladies," to which Arabella replies: "A spoon too. That's very gallant, for to see some people run their fat fingers into a box is as nauseous as eating without a fork." In the forties and fifties of the last century snuff spoons were still in use on the Scottish border. They were of bone and of a size to go into the snuffbox. People fed their noses, it was said, as naturally as they carried soap to their mouths.—London Mail.

What Could He Do?
"I hate to be contradicted," she said.
"Then I won't contradict you," he returned.
"You don't love me," she asserted.
"I don't," he admitted.
"You are a hateful thing!" she cried.
"I am," he replied.
"I believe you are trying to tease me," she said.
"I am," he conceded.
"And you do not love me."
"I don't."
For a moment she was silent.
"Well," she said at last, "I do hate a man who's weak enough to be led by a woman."—Houston Post.

Optimist and Pessimist.

In a contest in the Woman's Home Companion the first prize for the definition of pessimist went to Miss D. McKelvey of Colorado, who wrote: "A pessimist is a man who knows the price of everything and the value of nothing." The first prize for the definition of optimist went to Mrs. L. K. Carter of Pennsylvania. Her definition follows: "An optimist is one who thinks the high cost of living is worth the price."
